ALMA MATER

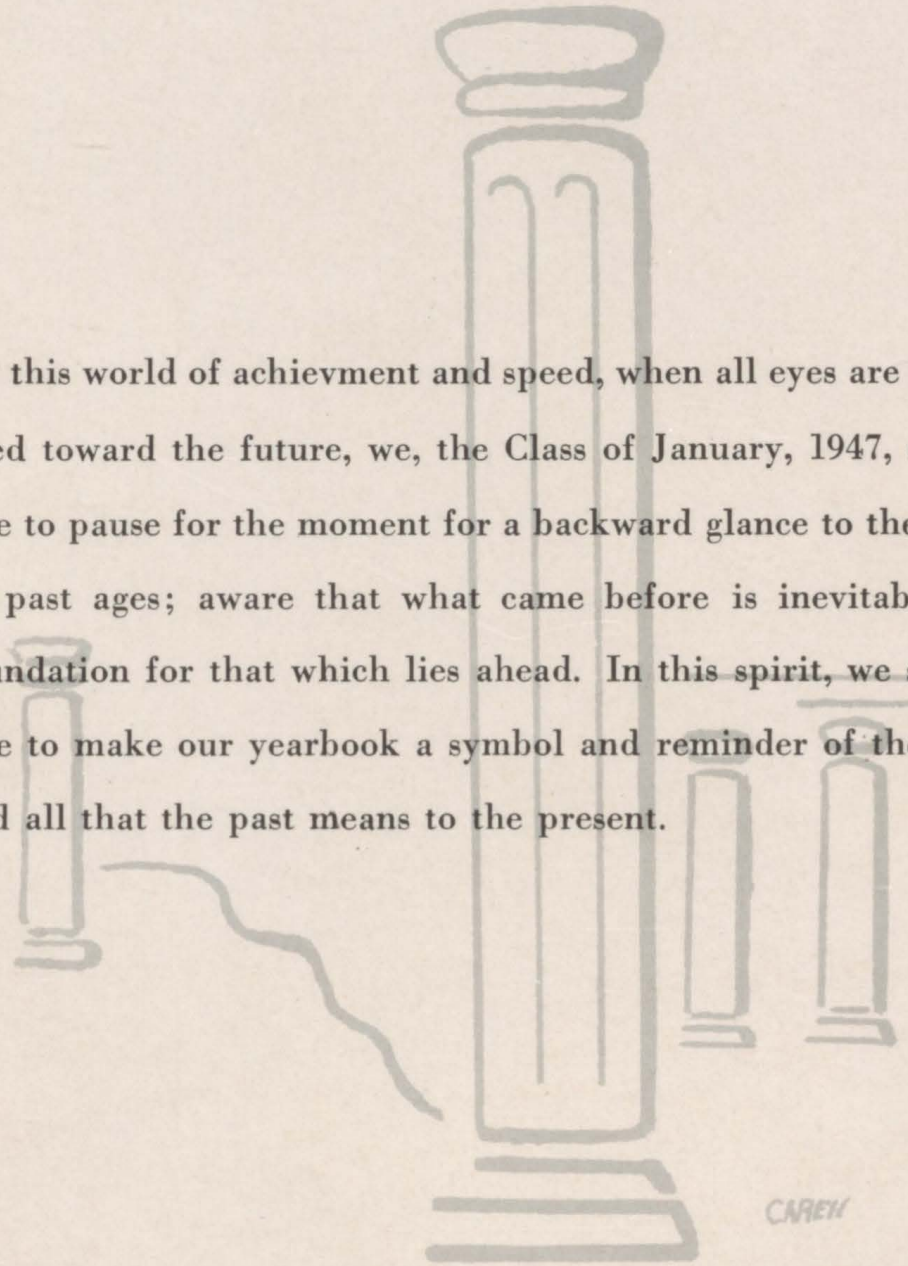

Over many a city old,
Famed in song and story,
Temple gray and castle hold
Catch the sunset glory.
So our Alma Mater proud
Looks o'er vale and meadow,
High between the sailing cloud
And its drifting shadow.

For her colors, first the blue
Of the April valley;
Then December's wintry hue
When the storm winds rally.
Newark High, thy fame we raise,
Many voices blending;
Thru the years we pledge thee praise,
Loyal to life's ending.

DEDICATION

IN this world of achievement and speed, when all eyes are directed toward the future, we, the Class of January, 1947, should like to pause for the moment for a backward glance to the glory of past ages; aware that what came before is inevitably the foundation for that which lies ahead. In this spirit, we should like to make our yearbook a symbol and reminder of the past, and all that the past means to the present.

*"Apollo tun'd the lyre; the Muses round
With voice alternate aid the silver sound."*

—ILIAD BK. I

Music—Frances Medley

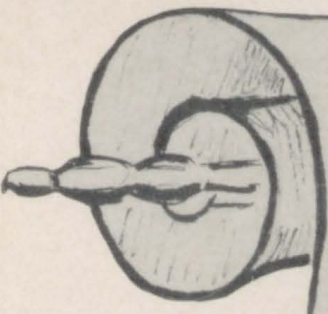

Words—Mary Ferry

*Beloved Alma Mater
Our saddened voices sing
Of memories of four long years
We shared within these walls.*

*Remembering cherished hours
It grieves us to depart,—
But we shall carry within our hearts
Your Truth, and Honor, and Light.*

*Beloved Alma Mater
Your colors e'er shall beam
Symbols of glorious fulfillment
Of adolescent dreams—*

*Onward our steps will lead us
But we'll return to you
Time and again in future years
To sing your praise anew.*

CLASS HISTORY

FROM our exalted position as seniors, it is not too easy to remember how we, as freshmen, arrived at the Barringer Annex at Webster St. School, in February '43. It seems that it was during the time of the Sinatra rage, the bow tie fad and the reiteration of such lyrics as "Pistol Packin' Mamma" and "Deep In The Heart of Texas". There was a war on and we took part in air raid drills to the sound of accor-dian accompaniment. Despite these distractions we were getting our first taste of high school life, and seeing the cheerlead-ers and the Blue Jackets for the first time. Remember when McGovern and Mac (the little shrimp) brought their lunch in a shopping bag, mocking Marty's lunches. Poor Marty! Mrs. O'Loughlin never did get him to become a tuba player. Remem-ber how we girls changed to gym suits in that blank-blank little two-by-four room in the basement? Well, we finally, after a summer's rest, became educated freshmen.

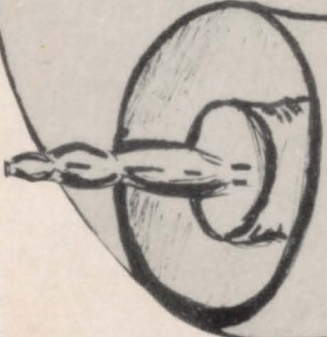

Now we ruled the roost, and being accepted as adults, were given an honor study from which many were promptly evicted. In Mr. Pritchards study we used to eat candy and potato chips purchased on our daily jaunts to Woolworth's, to strengthen us for 8th period Algebra. We wonder if Charles Robertiello was ever forgiven for that piece of paper left on Mr. Snavelly's floor. Remember when Jack Lee's bag-pipes wouldn't work in one of his classes, or was that in the Christmas play in which Frannie Barone was the match-girl? We hope Miss Decker knows we appreciated being her first freshman dancing class. Can we still lindy, pals? Will we ever forget the merry snowball fights or our first football games? Just think! Don Stevenson, a mere freshman actually played in one game. Were we thrilled!

Soon, however, we were bewildered sophomores at the main building, looking in vain for that pink elevator. We did find an addition to our class though, in the form of the junior high youngsters who were so soon to become indispensable class-mates. Remember the fish-head lab in biol-ogy, and those cooking and sewing classes? That cocoa was rather salty if you recol-lect. The main event was the distribution of lockers—three to a homeroom. It was the first and last time for any of us (sigh). Soon after D-day, which caused consider-able excitement, our term came to an end.

In the fall a small minority of us began our struggle with those sixteen line assign-ments in Caesar. Then those two great organizations were formed, the P.T.S.A. and the Barringer Bees. Remember that muddy E.O. game when someone's shoe refused to leave the gooey stuff! We had a lot of fun down at the Mosque too, using the star's dressing-rooms and exploring backstage. How about those silly girls who came in all scratched up from playing foot-ball? Did you know that they (The Blue Streaks) got their ideas from watching the team at practice? Bet we'll never forget how Lou Aitken hurt her knee in the post-touchdown excitement one day and was rushed to the hospital labeled "girl hurt in football game". A good finish for that term was the Christmas party in Miss Wal-son's English class. Oh brother!

Our 3B term was a typical spring term with lunches in the park, baseball after school, riding with the Boots and Saddle, and the Annual Spring Concert. To coun-teract the joy over V.E. day we had two losses; our President Franklin D. Roosevelt died and Mr. McGreal left for a higher position. Mr. Saylor whom we had hoped to have in Physics, has done a wonderful job as principal. As a climax to this term we had something called Career Day. Say, don't you know what you're going to be yet?

CLASS HISTORY

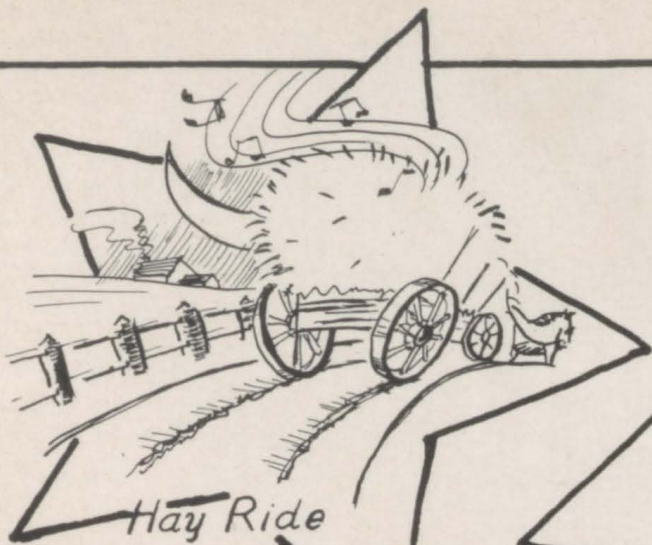

After another nice summer, time marched us on into our 3A term where we became, guess what? City Champs. Boy was that East Side game a surprise (not saying to whom). There was an outstanding production of Macbeth starring Leo Papaleo in full costume. Remember in Physics when we watched the workers on the Cathedral roof, through our telescopes? Before too long, 5% of the class received invitations to the National Honor Society. Senior year was just around the corner and we were getting just a little impatient.

Then we were it! All organized ambitious, talented, 4B's. (We like us, don't you?). We were lucky to get Mrs. Cappel and Mr. Pritchard as our advisers. Our choice of officers really turned out to be a wise one. Beginning the term right we put the 4A's in their place by beating them at basketball. Then we settled down to more serious things such as getting our signals straight for a true and false test, passing in Mr. Lippe's drippy Economics class, and writing "Trigonometry", with music borrowed from "Personality". The Junior Prom for which we had toiled, to which we, though seniors, were invited, was finally called off. We poured out our hearts and souls, our innermost thoughts, our likes and dislikes, wrapped them all together in a scrapbook, called them "Our Days" and sent them to England. The Modern Language department gave a colorful festival, and parts of it were televised, with the cast in green lipstick. Green was really our color that term. Remember the Shamrock Shag? Best St. Patrick's dance ever given at Barringer. Selling those clover pins was a clever bit of advertising. Of course MacNamarra's band helped too. And the jokes! (Oh really? No, we won't say it, Reilly we won't.) Speaking of selling things reminds us of those sharp blue hats made to fit anyone! To end that term regally we hired two buses, waved goodbye to Mr. Saylor and were off for a day of swimming, eating watermelon and riding the roller coaster at Lake Hopatcong. The next day we got our report cards and were off for our last carefree summer vacation as high school students.

The vacation flew by, as vacations have a habit of doing, and we returned to B.H.S. refreshed and ready for a busy term. We had hoped to get our rings in Sept., but waited till November. The yearbook got under way and we all paid a visit to Crescent Studios. Our proofs were lovely, in fact we thought they could easily win the "Lena the Hyena" contest. Wasn't it wonderful that our scrapbook won first prize in England? It was too bad that Mr. Weiss couldn't have been with us when Barringer led the Community Chest parade. How about the skit we gave for our 4A dance? Wasn't it exciting playing the fiftieth E.O. game? And selling programs! The stadium was simply packed. Poor Kilroy couldn't even get a seat. We enjoyed the game so much that the score was almost immaterial. Our frozen feet and aching backs added to the fun of our hay ride. Whoever said hay was soft? In December some scholarly ambitious ones came to school on a Saturday. (Or shouldn't we mention those college exams?) One of our happiest memories is of the prom. Soft lights, long dresses, and sweet music made it a wonderful success. Rehearsals became everyday affairs as we got ready first for class day and then for commencement.

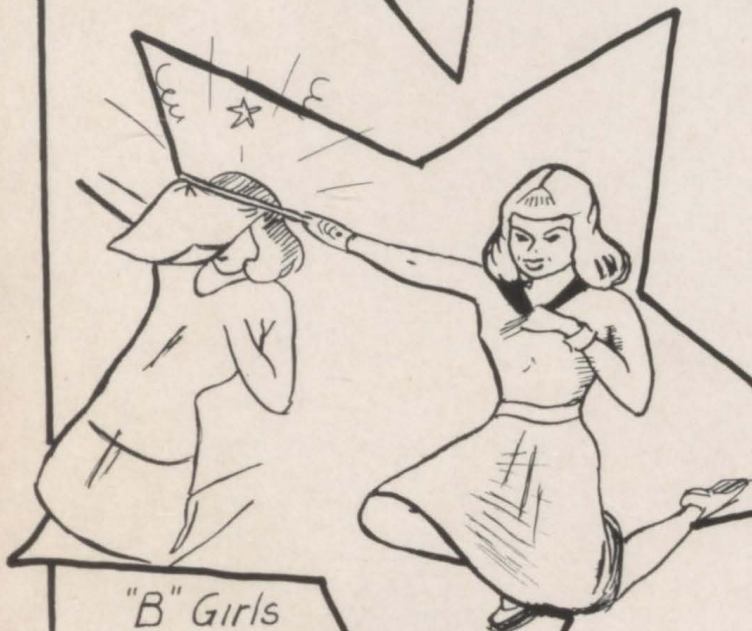

And now it's all over but the shouting. Let's have a toast, 4A's, and wish that all the rest of Barringer's students have as much fun as we have had during our four years in these ancient halls of learning!

CLASS

IT SHALL come to pass that in 2,400 years (1960 A.D.) a great theatrical production will be presented in the Mosque Theatre, Newark, New Jersey. (America will have been discovered in 1492 A.D.) Those present will be learned scholars who shall have been graduated from Barringer High School in January, 1947 A. D.

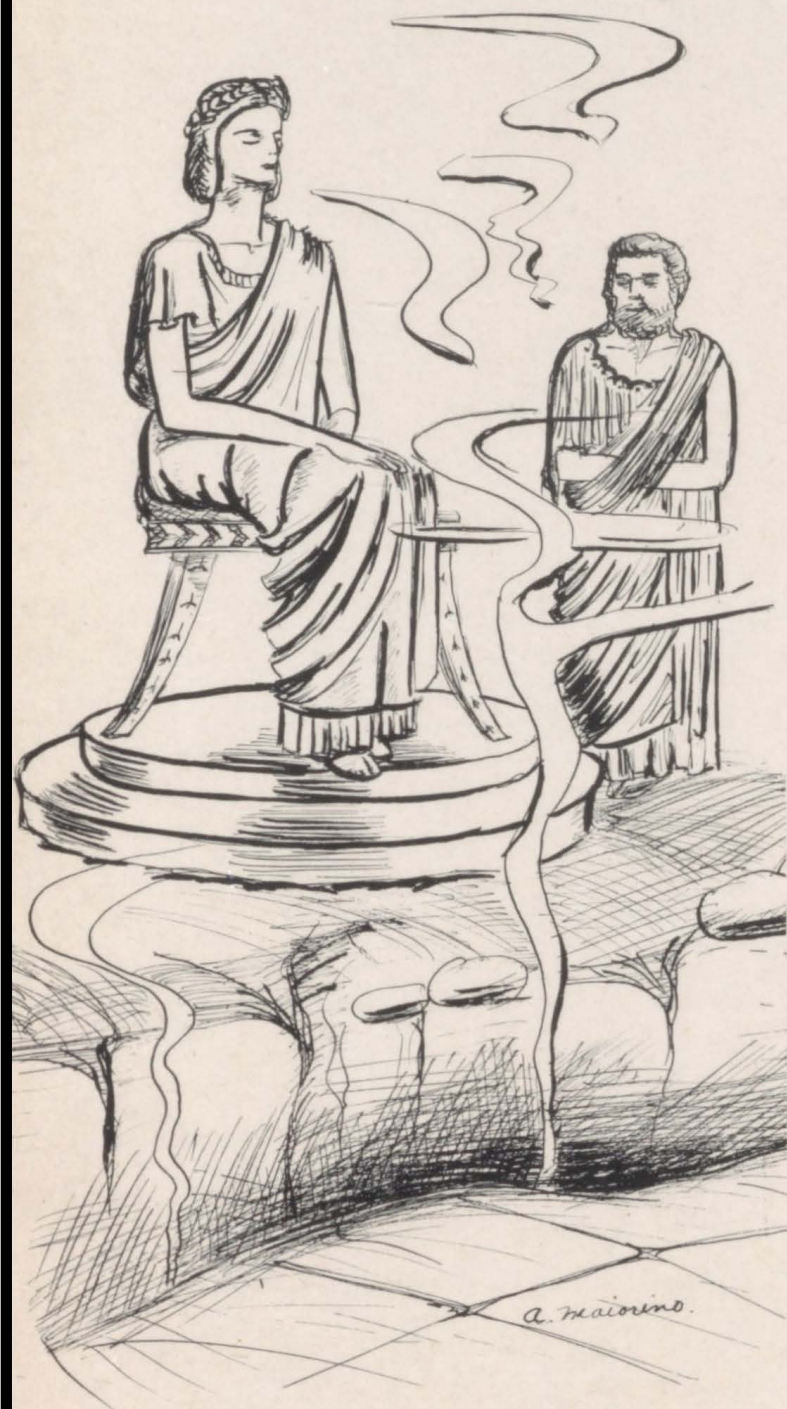

Through the powers bestowed on me by Apollo, I can see them now. It is a cold, starlit night in January. The marquee lights beckon to the eager playgoers, who are met at the door by LEO PAPALEO, the doorman, in full regalia. NANCY RICCIARDI, in the cashier's booth, is chattering busily with DANTE NARDONE, the theatre manager. PETE McCORMICK, with a tooth-paste smile, is collecting the tickets. Supersalesmen GUS CARLUCCI and GUIDO TANGO are very profitably selling playbills. Refreshments are being sold by JOSEPHINE TRIBELLI, JENNY BIMBO, SUSANNE RAMBO and EILEEN COVENEY. They are featuring MARIE ALFANO'S latest ice cream flavor, Ambrosia. At the First Aid station near by nurses INES COLDEBELLA, VIVIAN WHITE, BETTY WHITE, and MARY BOURDON are assisting doctors RALPH DEL NEGRO and ROSE FARRELL in their treatment of MARGARET CARUSO, who is suffering a nose bleed caused by the high altitude of the second balcony. Gathered in the lobby are TOM McGOVERN, CASTRESE CIACCIARELLI, and LOU GIORDANO, gazing approvingly at the lovely ED MADERA models, MARY FERRY, ELAINE CENTANNI, PAULINE COLELLO and BARBARA LEWIS, who have just entered in their stunning JOYCE KIMBEL Kreations.

Senators-elect BILL ROSE and DON STEVENSON are in a heated argument with the president of State Penn., MARTY CRANDELL, when their attention is arrested by INEZ GULLA, the poised ambassadress to Lower Slobbovia and her attachée BARBARA HOPP.

The relative silence is suddenly disrupted by RALPH BARRA, first ward political Boss and his district-leaders RAY GIANSAINTI, GEORGE JANNICELLI, JOE CICONE, and VIC MALANGA. They are escorting wrestler ANGELO PALERMO to his seat. But they are closely shadowed by FLO LARDIERE, the ruthless detective.

DR. LOTTE HEUMAN, child psychologist and her protégées' CHARLOTTE WILBUR the younger and PETE KEHAYES, JR. are hurrying to their seats. Their parents sitting in the dress-circle are conversing with JOAN MURPHY who has made a fortune in the "Jam" business.

Who are the lovely ladies talking to AUDREY JONES and husband, proud owners of a farm where they raise -- er -- artichokes? They're CHRISTINE CARELL, DOT POLLOCK, GLORIA VALENZA, and LIZ DANTON. PAT MARKS is telling PHIL SARCONI of her intention to vacation in Tasmania and saying she can't understand why THERESA ZANGARI is working as an interpreter on a banana boat.

Very much in evidence at this time are NORMA BERGAMO, reporter, MARTHA QUINN, Drama critic, and ANTHONY URBANO, photographer. All of them work for the JOYCE JOLLIAMORE Journal, "The Daily Shirker" a parlor-pink journal.

Since all of the seats are occupied ANNE SOMMERS and HELEN KLEINER, aviatrixes are getting impatient. They have just returned from Siberia where they aided an exiled Russian official, returning to his wife, interpreter SUE CUBBAGE.

Finally the orchestra, featuring accordionist CHARLES ROBERTIELLO and RALPH NICASTRO on the tenor sax, tunes up. The curtain slowly rises for Part One of the show, a "mellow drama." The setting, designed by ANTOINETTE MAIORINO, CAROLINE BARRETT, FRANCES BARONE, LILLIAN ROSSILLI, and STANLEY CILETTI creates the atmosphere.

ELLEN HRONES, very much bored, is listening to flowery sonnets from her suitors CHARLES PIERCE and CARL GUARINO who, then, mad with despair, kill each other in a duel.

As the stage darkens, she is forced to watch the entrance of dancers NORMA LEGREID, HELEN JUVELIS and GERRY STEFANELLI. They inadvertently trip (over a wire left by carpenters, GEORGE KEVLIN and FRANK CUBELLIS) and pirouette for the benefit of talent scouts JOE MAULANO and JACK GREGORY,—from VICTOR GONNELLI'S dance studio, where TERRY DE DEO teaches water ballet and NORMA BIUNNO teaches the brawl room style. After this dance, the orchestra plays "Choppin's Mayonnaise" with JOSEPHINE VINCIGUERRA and BETTY STELKER as soloists. Between the acts, MARY CARUSO, MARY SMEGELSKI, NATALINA STROLLO and MARY STROUD can be heard giggling and rattling papers in the back row.

The second part presents "Madame Caterpillar" an operetta starring JOSEPHINE VALENTINO, EVELYN HALL, PRUDY DAVIS, and DOLORES MOORE (the Moore the merrier).

During the intermission, TERESITA CAPPEL, since she has moved to Washington, is a capitalist, begins an argument with scientists DAVID ALTSHULER, BERNARD HELFIN, JOE D'ALLEGRO, and HAROLD ZINNES. She is silenced by an atomic firecracker set off by LARRY KRAVITZ.

Professor HOWARD WECHSLER and RUTH MADDEN, teacher of dramatics are representing education tonight.

An austere note is struck by the presence of Father EDWARD DRAGHI and two Irish cops AL MONTINI and DANNY MAIELLO.

Buying refreshments are the businessmen, BEN DELORENZO, denture manufacturer, with his secretary, PATRICIA TURNER, HUGO PALADINO, bobby-pin king, and ANGELA SORGE, designer of the latest lounge-erie "Gyp Slips for Drips."

Wandering around aimlessly are JOE DEL TUFO, Chinese restaurant proprietor, and LOU CARSILLO, who was jobless for so long that now he is driving a team for a football coach.

Now comes Part 3, a vaudeville act. A blare of swing on an AL STRUMOLO kick brings the crowd back to their seats, in time to hear MIKE SORIANO'S trombone version of "I'm Getting Detrimental Over You."

The band recedes, leaving a trapeze, two chairs and a dumbbell (no, not BILL KELSO, he's in the act) Bill, BETTY GAVIN, and MIKE SANTORO perform some superb gymnastics for the crowd.

They are hardly finished when FELICE BARONE sports-announcer rushes on with the latest scores of the Newark Bobby Sox game in which MARTY PIRONE, FRANK ANGELACCI, and DONALD PETRONELLA are playing.

For a finale the band plays a modern arrangement of LOUISA AITKENoffsky's "March Slob" in C minor. After the last crescendo, the M.C. HAROLD McCORMICK steps out, returns the bouquets of flowers that litter the stage to the audience, and wishes them a good night.

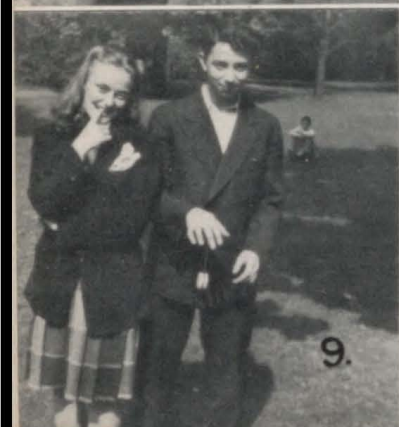

Who is now coming up the aisle? How proud their gait! They are the representation sent by the Carmen Smith ultra-futuristic Conservatory of Music, EVELYN PORTER, BARBARA BASS, SADIE ANDERSON and HARRIET COLLIER. With them are director MITCHELL BUTLER, manager BARBARA BERRY and funny man ROBERT LEAKE, not to mention MARY WILIAMS, the "angel" of the show. My what an "aye-ful" they are.

Talking to the managers of Television Station B.H.S., CHARLES MUSGRAVE and ED BRANDO, are ANTHONY D'AVANZIO who models "Slick Socks for Saps", and RALPH LAMONICA, cigarette sponsor.

On leaving everyone notices the posters announcing a double feature for the next week. Strong, silent lover DON STEENBURGH is co-starring with the luscious new starlet JANET QUIGLEY in the daring film "The Inlaw". Also on the bill are CARMELA PUZO and PALMA BOLCATO comedienness and CALVIN JUDSON'S new band.

At long last the crowd, tired but happy, reluctantly leaves via helicopter, for home.

Now my vision is ending and I feel sad,—for gladly would I remain with them all, those delightful beings of the class of Barringer-January 1947.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Kelso, Nicastro, Stevenson, Madera, Ciccone and Paladino.

Rose, Crandell, Jannicelli.

"B" GIRLS

TRACK MEN

McCormick, Cubellis, Petronella.

"B" MEN

"All valiant chiefs and men of mighty fame"
—ILIAD Bk. 3

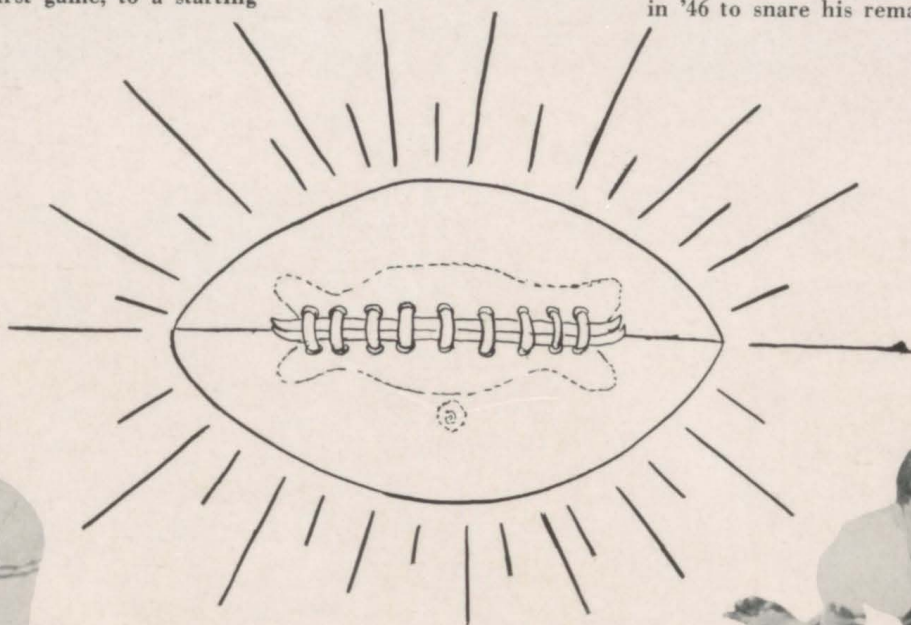

JOSEPH CICCONE

"Joe" achieved his major letter on the '46 football squad. He started the season at center but shifted, before the first game, to a starting position at guard.

MARTIN CRANDELL

Captain of the track team in 1946 and winner of high hurdles and discus for two successive years, "Big Marty" added two letters to his collection of four. He was the "Big Blue's" full-back on the All City team in '45 and returned in '46 to snare his remaining two letters.

GEORGE JANNICELLI

"Jan" earned his letter by alternating at the half-back position on the football squad in '46.

WILLIAM KELSO

"Bill" proved his interests were on the grid-iron when he won his major letter in the season of 1946. He barely missed a "B" in '45 but made up for it by playing a hard game at end in the 1946 season when he snared his letter.

EDWARD MADERA

"Ed" gained his "B" in 1946 playing center on the "Blue eleven". He was a valuable man on the squad, playing the full forty-eight minutes in most of the games.

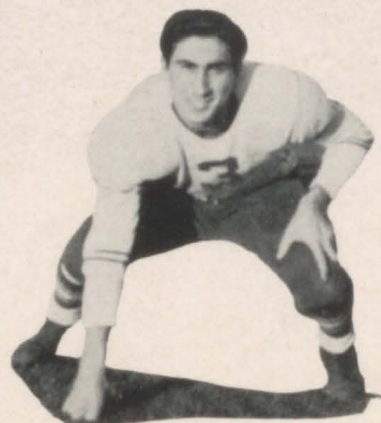

RALPH NICASTRO

"Nick" received his two letters in '45 and '46 for his work on the gridiron. He was all-state tackle in 1945 on the "Big Blue's" city-championship team. He proved himself a valuable man by repeating his good work in the '46 season.

WILLIAM ROSE

"Bill" started his collection of letters in his Junior year when he won three "B's", one each for track, football and basketball, of which he was captain. In his Senior year he repeated his performance by taking three more. It was in his last year of track that he broke the city javelin record.

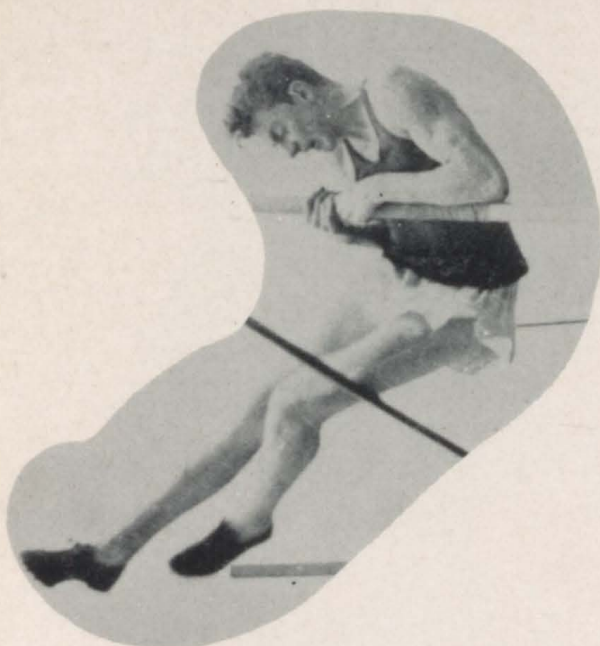

HUGO PALADINO

Hugo made the grade for his major letter as a hard-hitting tackle on the grid team in the season of 1946.

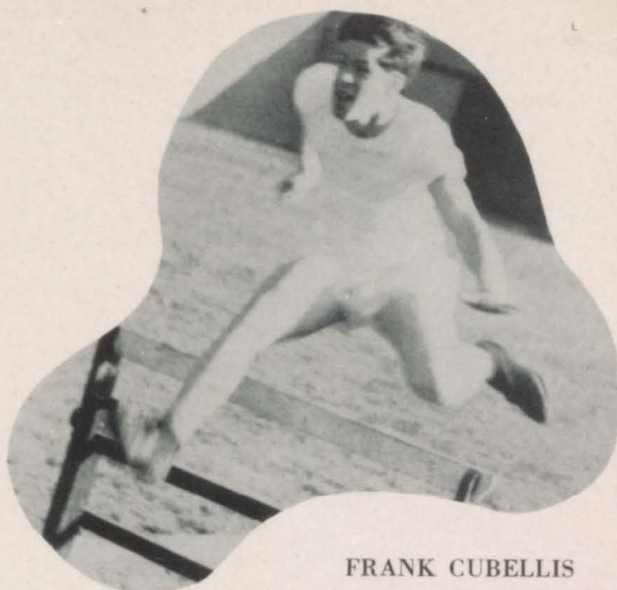

DON STEVENSON

"Steve" received his first letter in track in his Sophomore year and added another in his Junior year. A stalwart guard on the Blue eleven, he won two more letters in his Junior and Senior years.

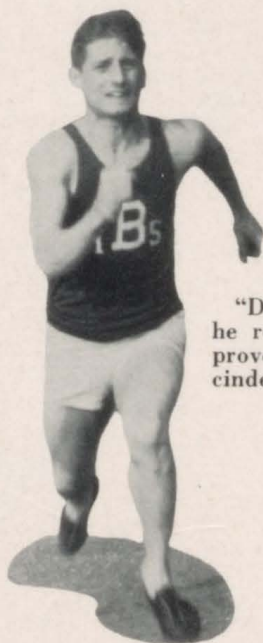

HAROLD McCORMICK

"Mac" entered into the athletic spotlight in his Freshman year by walking away with the city Junior Pole Vault Championship, a gold medal and his letter. Due to injuries, he was unable to continue his rigorous schedule.

FRANK CUBELLIS

Frank, a veteran of the U. S. Navy, returned to Barringer in time to capture his letter by taking the city Low Hurdles Championship during the 1946 track season.

DONALD PETRONELLA

"Don" holds three letters, all for track, which he received in his last three years. Thus he proved himself a fleet-footed athlete on "the cinders".

FRANK ANGELACCI

Frank concentrated his sports interest on the baseball field and was rewarded with two letters, one for his work in the season of 1945 and the other for the '46 season.

MARTIN PIRONE

"Marty" became a letter man in his Junior term as an outfielder for the baseball team. He followed the next year with another "B", this time using his talents as a pitcher.

Who is the
"Voice with a Smile?"

A GIRL very much like you—perhaps she lives on your block or went to your school. She's friendly, wants to get ahead, and takes pride in a job that counts in her community.

She dresses well, too, on a salary that is the highest in telephone history. Yes, she likes it here—the interesting work, the pleasant surroundings, the feeling of working with young people like herself.

You will like it here, too. And your Vocational Guidance Director can tell you how easy it is to become a "Voice with a Smile" after you graduate. Ask her today.
